

HUMAN RIGHTS DAY

International Human Rights Day is observed on 10th December every year. This day memorialize the adoption of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR) by United Nations General Assembly on 10th December, 1948. ‘Human Rights’ refer to basic rights or freedom which include people’s right to live, health, education, freedom of speech and thought, and equal rights. This day is observed to promote equality, peace, justice, freedom and the protection of human dignity. Every individual is entitled to human rights irrespective of race, colour, religion, sex, language, or social status.

On the occasion of International Human Rights Day celebration, a message was given to the students during the assembly. Social Science club also has conducted various competitions in the school. Poster making competition for grade 1 to V and essay writing competition for grade VI to IX on the Topic of Human Rights.
