COLOURS DAY CELEBRATION

On July 20, we celebrated Red Day with great enthusiasm. Everyone dressed in red, and the surroundings were decorated with red balloons, flowers, and objects. Children participated in various activities like painting, craftwork, and storytelling related to the colour red. The event helped them recognize and associate the colour with different objects like apples, strawberries, and roses. It was a fun and educational celebration!

On August 03, we celebrated Yellow Day with joy and excitement. Everyone dressed in bright yellow outfits, and the surroundings were decorated with yellow balloons, flowers, and objects. Children participated in fun activities like colouring, crafts, and storytelling related to the colour yellow. They learned about yellow fruits like bananas, mangoes, and sunflowers. The day was filled with happiness, just like the sunshine!

On August 21, we celebrated Blue Day with great enthusiasm. Everyone dressed in shades of blue, and the surroundings were decorated with blue balloons, flowers, and objects. Children participated in fun activities like colouring, crafts, and storytelling related to the colour blue. They learned about blue things like the sky, the ocean, and blueberries. It was a fun and educational celebration!

On August 28, we celebrated Purple Day with excitement and joy. Everyone dressed in shades of purple, and the surroundings were decorated with purple balloons, flowers, and other objects. Children participated in fun activities like colouring, crafts, and storytelling related to the colour purple. They learned about purple fruits like grapes, plums, and brinjals. It was a wonderful and colourful celebration!

On January 08, we celebrated Orange Day with great excitement. Everyone dressed in shades of orange, and the surroundings were decorated with orange balloons, flowers, and objects. Children participated in fun activities like colouring, crafts, and storytelling related to the colour orange. They learned about orange fruits like oranges, pumpkins, and carrots. The day was filled with joy and learning!

On January 29, we celebrated Green Day with joy and excitement. Everyone dressed in shades of green, and the surroundings were decorated with green balloons, plants, and objects. Children participated in fun activities like colouring, crafts, and storytelling related to the colour green. They learned about green fruits and vegetables like grapes, spinach, and cucumbers. The day helped them appreciate the beauty of nature and the importance of greenery!

On February 05, we celebrated Pink Day with great joy and excitement. Everyone dressed in beautiful shades of pink, and the surroundings were decorated with pink balloons, flowers, and other objects. Children participated in fun activities like colouring, crafts, and storytelling related to the colour pink. They learned about pink things like roses, flamingos, and strawberries. The day was filled with fun, learning, and happiness!

Children participated in fun activities like colouring, crafts, and storytelling related to the colour white. They learned about white things like clouds, milk, doves, and snow. The day was filled with learning, peace, and happiness!

On February 15, we celebrated Black Day with enthusiasm and excitement. Everyone dressed in shades of black, and the surroundings were decorated with black balloons, charts, and objects. Children participated in fun activities like colouring, crafts, and storytelling related to the colour black. They learned about black objects like crows, blackboards, coal, and night sky. It was a fun and educational celebration!

Conclusion

The Colour Day celebration was a vibrant and joyous occasion, bringing together students, teachers, and staff in a beautiful display of creativity and unity. The event not only highlighted the significance of different colours in our lives but also fostered a sense of togetherness and appreciation for diversity. The enthusiasm and participation from everyone made this celebration truly special.

A heartfelt thank you to our dedicated organizers, teachers, and staff for making this event a success. A special appreciation goes to our students for their enthusiasm and creativity, and to the parents for their support. Your collective efforts have made this day memorable. We look forward to more such celebrations that bring happiness and learning together!
