Prime Minister of independent India was extremely fond of children and the programme clearly depicted the spirit of the occasion with teachers holding the stage and putting up a mesmerising cultural show for the children.

Through a speech rich tributes were paid to Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, who is known for his relentless efforts in increasing awareness of the rights, care and education of children. The following cultural programme had a series of interesting and exciting events, all planned meticulously for complete entertainment.

Teachers of the junior section enthralled the audience with their energetic and graceful moves with their traditional dance. Students pulsated with excitement when their teachers presented a dance bringing together their poetry of footsteps and a cosmic folk tune on the song. The celebratory mood continued with an invigorating and foot-tapping by teachers. Subsequently, a song was presented by a group of teachers. Students were elated to see their teachers performing and celebrating the day with zeal and enthusiasm.

Principal and management also appreciated the teachers for their lively performance. The Principal, Sr. Sumi Rosa greeted the children warmly on the special day.

She compared the children to beautiful blossoms and motivated them to spread their fragrance everywhere.

She also reminded the students of the extraordinary sacrifices made by Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru and asked the students to keep him as an idol in all their endeavours. Children's Day was marked with grand splendour and fiesta as the school campus buzzed with excitement and joy as it was a day wherein fun and frolic dominated.

The children came dressed in casual dresses and relished their favourite food with classmates. Students greatly enjoyed playing and winning against their mentors.
